The following events were organized:

- ♣ Staff Enrichment Programme - On 13th October 2018 - Staff enrichment programme. Resource Person Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Johnson George is a consultant at Ex Sys. The workshop was on “Strategic Planning” and Mr. George stressed on the importance of strategizing and the principles of long and short term planning. It was important for an institution to give a voice of all stakeholders, encourage research, ideas generation, innovation and empower departments. It was imperative to link the values the college upholds with its vision and mission stress was also laid on rewarding, encouraging and praising performers. Lastly a reviewing mechanism should be put in place and the performance of the institution should be analysed.

The second half of the session explained the need for making students industry ready. A feedback from industries is needed as then one can train then accordingly. All stakeholders should be involved in strategic planning. The PESTLE (Political, Economic, Social, Technological, Legal and Environmental) and SWOT analysis was carried. Teachers were divided into 4 groups to identify the strengths, weaknesses opportunities and threats the college faces.

The results were linked by Mr. George to the strategic planning process Strategic considerations as explained by Mr. George should involve the collection and analysis of relevant data and information pertaining to all that is part of the strategic planning process, the SWOT analysis and PESTLE analysis. Thus according to him the strategic objectives would have to be, Financial metric, Customer Metric, Internal Process metric, Learning and growth metric and the process of evaluation metric.

The Principal, Sr. Ananda reminded the teachers that to achieve the mission of strategic objective of the institution, self-introspection by faculty members was extremely important so as to put in place programmes for learning at the end of the semester.

In conclusion Mr. George suggested that institutions should have a leader leading from the back, in other words, what was suggested was to have a leadership system which would be non-hierarchical.
