SEMESTER V NEWS DESIGN

SUBJECT CODE: SBMMEDJ506

Learning Objectives:

- To introduce students to the principles of graphic design as it pertains to the presentation of news – in print (newspapers, magazines, journals, newsletters), in television and on the Internet (websites and apps).
- To introduce students to principles of design and then look at the specific demands of the form in which news is presented to the reader and viewer.

Readings are limited to introducing principles and the rest of the class will be devoted to understanding these principles from observation. Students are expected to sketch or doodle their ideas and then to convert them using software. Students are expected to know Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign and Adobe Dreamweaver.

The readings in the class are expected to introduce students to the key concepts that will determine and guide the design process.

This paper does not have a written exam. There will be a viva voce examination conducted by a qualified external examiner to assess the project elements conceived and produced by each individual student at the end of the semester, along specific news design and layout parameters.

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the semester, the students will:

1. Demonstrate understanding of basic principles of design
2. Design a newspaper
3. Design a news magazine
4. Design a news website

Lectures per Week: 04

I. Introduction to News Design

II. What is Graphic Design?

III. Point, Line, Plane; Rhythm and Balance; Scale

V: Introduction to Colour

- VI. Elements of a Grid System
- VII. Structure in Design
- VIII. Design Hierarchy
- IX. Illustration & Photography, Infographics
- X. Cover Design
- XI. Elements of Web Design

Internal Assessment:

This part of the paper will be assessed by the faculty that teaches the paper based on the design work done in class.

External Assessment:

Each student will have to submit the following project pieces as part of their final external assessment:

- a. A newspaper (broadsheet)
- b. A magazine (32 pages)
- c. A news website
