

Sophia College (Autonomous), Mumbai

Program: B.A. Education

Program Specific Objectives (PSOs) 2022-2023

S.No	The B.A. Education Program endeavours to :	Graduate Attributes
PSO 1.	To provide focussed individual and collaborative group academic work experiences for effectively expressing ideas, observations and data; in oral, written and presentation; using the appropriate ICT and conventional support media.	Disciplinary knowledge
PSO 2.	To develop comprehensive knowledge and understanding of educational theory, educational psychology, educational systems, educational institutions and policies.	Effective communication skills
PSO 3.	To enable critical thinking skills in educational statistics, by analyzing, synthesizing, evaluating factual and conceptual information from quantitative and qualitative data sources.	Critical, analytical thinking and scientific reasoning
PSO 4.	To enable problem solving skills for determining the solution to a given problem, from the possible set of solutions and apply learning to real life situations, with respect and tolerance of all cultures and religions.	Problem solving skills for national development
PSO 5.	To develop creative design and construction skills; for basic data collection tools in educational psychology, evaluation, technology and vocational guidance.	Data Collection skills
PSO 6.	To develop an understanding of women's issues, human rights and environmental issues, so that they respond constructively, through the use of computers, social media and various digital platforms.	Digital literacy for social & national development
PSO 7.	To develop comprehensive knowledge and understanding of concepts and procedures of basic educational research methodology, so as to carry out and report the results of an experiment or survey.	Research related skills
PSO 8.	To sensitize students to respond with courage and concern to the personal and social issues of the less privileged, by motivating and guiding disadvantaged peer students, in a humane manner.	Cooperation and teamwork, Leadership qualities
PSO 9.	To enable students to work independently, in life-long acquisition of knowledge and skills, identify appropriate resources and learn how to learn, complete tasks, through self-paced, self-directed learning.	Self-directed Life-long Learning
PSO 10.	To enable students to avoid unethical behaviour such as fabrication, falsification and mis-representation of data or committing plagiarism.	Moral and ethical awareness and reasoning

Sophia College (Autonomous), Mumbai

Program: B.A. Education

Program Specific Objectives (PSOs) 2022-2023

S.No	The B.A. Education Program endeavours to :	Graduate Attributes
PSO 1.	To provide focussed individual and collaborative group academic work experiences for effectively expressing ideas, observations and data; in oral, written and presentation; using the appropriate ICT and conventional support media.	Disciplinary knowledge
PSO 2.	To develop comprehensive knowledge and understanding of educational theory, educational psychology, educational systems, educational institutions and policies.	Effective communication skills
PSO 3.	To enable critical thinking skills in educational statistics, by analyzing, synthesizing, evaluating factual and conceptual information from quantitative and qualitative data sources.	Critical, analytical thinking and scientific reasoning
PSO 4.	To enable problem solving skills for determining the solution to a given problem, from the possible set of solutions and apply learning to real life situations, with respect and tolerance of all cultures and religions.	Problem solving skills for national development
PSO 5.	To develop creative design and construction skills; for basic data collection tools in educational psychology, evaluation, technology and vocational guidance.	Data Collection skills
PSO 6.	To develop an understanding of women's issues, human rights and environmental issues, so that they respond constructively, through the use of computers, social media and various digital platforms.	Digital literacy for social & national development
PSO 7.	To develop comprehensive knowledge and understanding of concepts and procedures of basic educational research methodology, so as to carry out and report the results of an experiment or survey.	Research related skills
PSO 8.	To sensitize students to respond with courage and concern to the personal and social issues of the less privileged, by motivating and guiding disadvantaged peer students, in a humane manner.	Cooperation and teamwork, Leadership qualities
PSO 9.	To enable students to work independently, in life-long acquisition of knowledge and skills, identify appropriate resources and learn how to learn, complete tasks, through self-paced, self-directed learning.	Self-directed Life-long Learning
PSO 10.	To enable students to avoid unethical behaviour such as fabrication, falsification and mis-representation of data or committing plagiarism.	Moral and ethical awareness and reasoning