A brief report of the event: On November 21, 2024, Sophia College for Women hosted a Genderlogue street play competition. The Hindi Department and the NSS Unit collaborated, and six volunteers from the Hindi department, six volunteers from the NSS department, and three additional volunteers helped with photography and video. The play focused on the environment and taught us about our human responsibilities to it, how we treat and utilize it, and what we can do to help it. We are incredibly grateful to Dr Vaishali Pachunde , Head of Hindi Department and NSS Programme Officer, who guided and supported us during the preparation of this performance, as the team won first runner up place in this competition.

The volunteers were pleased with themselves. Our Principal Dr. Anagha Tendulkar Patil and the judges presented the prizes. At the conclusion of the occasion, our Principal gave an excellent address.

Beneficiaries response: the play was well received by the audience, who applauded the volunteers as they performed, and the judges were impressed by the volunteers' enthusiasm and presentation of the play and the impact it had.
