

B.A. History

---

Programme Specific Objectives for B.A. History

1. To understand what is a historical source and the different types of sources.
2. To learn about the political, economic and socio-cultural developments that have taken place in the history of India from ancient times till after independence.
3. To be aware of major international events and how they have influenced people across the world.
4. To become acquainted with careers for which knowledge of history is needed.
5. To infer how historical events impact the contemporary society.

Programme Specific Outcomes for B.A. History

On completing B.A. History, the learner will be able to:

1. Explain what is a historical source and describe the different types of sources
2. Outline the major political, economic and socio-cultural developments that have taken place in the history of India from ancient times till after independence.
3. Comment on major events that have had an international impact
4. Prepare for a career in fields ranging from civil services and lecturer to museum curator, archivist, researcher, archaeologist and others.
5. Give an informed opinion on how events in the past are playing a role in current developments; linking history to contemporary movements, ideas and events.