

Department of Psychology

Course Objectives:

1. To understand the basic concepts of psychology
2. To create an exposure and knowledge of the discipline of psychology with a variety of papers from different fields of psychology
3. To stimulate an interest in psychology by highlighting the relevance and applications of Psychology in everyday life.
4. To expose students to the theories and research in various field of psychology.
5. To generate an awareness of and a critical understanding of various ethical considerations within the field of psychology.

Program Outcomes:

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

PO 1: Knowledge: Recall and understand the basic concepts, theories and principles within the field of psychology.

PO 2: Women's issues/Human rights issues: Evaluate and examine different perspectives of psychological reality and to generate more humane and sensitive alternatives.

PO 3: Research Competencies: Understand, develop and apply principles and skills of experimentation and research in various domains of psychology. To explore and hone research skills

PO 4: Critical thinking /Practical Applications: use their knowledge of psychology to analyze and evaluate information in their environment and be aware of biased and assumptions. To recognise and acknowledge various viewpoints and perspectives